The Military Officers Association of America (MOAA)

The Military Officers Association of America (MOAA) officially opened its 2007 "Base/Post Scholarship" program Nov. 15, and will offer individual $1,000 grants to 25 children of active duty personnel worldwide. To be eligible, a student must be under age 24, working on a first undergraduate degree and a dependent child of an active duty serviceman - enlisted, warrant officer or officer - in the United States Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines, Coast Guard, Public Health Service or the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration. This includes members of the drilling Reserves and National Guard. Grant recipients will be randomly selected from among applicants within each of the seven services. No grade point average, SAT or essays will be needed for the base/post application. MOAA membership is not required. Students can apply via the MOAA Web site at www.moaa.org. Choose "Services," then "Educational Assistance" to find the online application. They should follow the instructions for the multipurpose scholarship application.

The deadline for submission is March 1 at noon. Semifinalists will be notified by e-mail message and the self-check on the Web site by mid-March. Winners will be notified in May.
